

Español 3
Examen de medio año, enero 2017
Situaciones orales

1. I am a school counselor and you are talking to me about possible professions that you may want to pursue in the future. (teacher initiates)
2. There was a problem recently with someone at school. I am your teacher, talk to me about the problem. (student initiates)
3. There was an accident and either you or someone else that was involved needs help. I am an adult nearby, you come to me for help. (student initiates)
4. You have an idea for a new volunteer project at your school. I am your teacher and we have a meeting to talk about your project. (teacher initiates)
5. I am your friend and we are talking about finding a new friend and fitting in because you're moving to a new school. (teacher initiates)
6. I am a new student at school who just arrived from El Salvador. I talk to you after class about what students do in their free time here. (teacher initiates)
7. I am the boss of a job where you want to work part time. Find out the details about the position. (student initiates)
8. You're talking to the receptionist in a waiting room of a doctor's office about why you came in today. I am the receptionist. (teacher initiates)
9. I am your teacher and its the last day of school. Talk to me about your plans for the summer. (student initiates)
10. I am your partner in Spanish class and we are reminiscing about childhood. Talk with me about what you used to do with your friends as kids. (student initiates)